

Horseback Riding

You are in for a treat! Franklin Rovetto has been giving guided horseback riding tours in Caldera for 8 years now. The scenery in Caldera where you go with the horses is absolutely breathtaking. Even on a cloudy day at the top we were able to see the ocean. Franklin will give you about 5 minutes of instruction on how to ride a horse. This is not a nose to butt trail ride, but more of a backcountry ride, so there is plenty of room to spread out and enjoy. If you haven't ridden a horse before, please let Franklin know ahead of time. If you're somewhat knowledgeable you can have a nice gallop in an open field. Preferable riding times are in the morning, before it starts raining or gets too hot. Custom options are available with advance notice and availability.

Regular tours last 2.5 hours of riding time. $35.00 pp

You may be picked up in Boquete at Los Establos Plaza or meet him at the church in Caldera.
