The setting is perfect for a romantic weekend, a week of Spanish language immersion, or a longer visit to explore all of the region. If you are considering a move to Panama, your hosts would be happy to answer questions and give you some 'insider' tips.

If you wish, you can arrange to take a course in silk painting and polymer clay with Barbara, an artist/teacher at her studio, The Blue Door, in Boquete. You may also wish to take one of Mort's artisan bread baking classes, using the wood fired clay oven.

We and Maggie, our sweet Labradoodle, look forward to welcoming you as our honored guests.
